Select Ability:

Level 1: You have never tried skiing or snowboarding before. _____

Level 2: You have spent a few hours on the slopes- probably a day or two. You can put on and take off your equipment and move around. You are comfortable gliding and stopping on the easiest learning terrain (bunny tow) and can sometimes make simple direction changes _____

Level 3: You are comfortable gliding and making turns on beginner terrain. You feel almost ready for easy green runs on the mountain. Skiers probably make wedge turns, but you may make parallel turns too. Snowboarders can nearly link turns heel to toe. _____ Level 4: You ski or ride comfortably on green terrain. You can link smooth gliding turns on all but the steepest green sections. Skiers may be parallel but probably use a slight wedge much of the time _____
